stand up and give a cheer for marian high raise her banners proudly on high let the whole world realize we've got the spirit that never dies so hip hooray for dear old marian high with her banners white and blue so wherever you go you will always know we're for marian loyal and true freshmen and senior hall, the lobby, the walkways, the spirit, the good times and the friendly air—all these make marian her students. when the old faces go and the new arrive, these are traditions left, waiting to be carried on again. whether it is the emblem on the floor, senior privileges or the presence of king colt, there lies tradition. it lives in marian's halls and in her outside activities. and it takes a group of students, like those at this school, to give the respect and spirit needed to carry on the ways. it's traditional to say with pride "i go to marian." so let the whole world realize, we've got the spirit that never dies!

proudly we hail the blue and white forever we pledge our loyalty wherever our paths may roam.
stand united to uphold; the spirit that can never be told
we will treasure the time spent here at marian

with you we share a part of our newfound youth and you give to us your riches in return here is the place where we learn through ourselves and others to live and love so be with us always, god our lord at marian dedication

it's your year, seniors '69 ... time to move out of marian to make room for those next in line. your senior ring will be the one tie you will have with your old high school and all the memories. don't forget your freshman year fears, your sudden sophomore spirit, the high goals in your junior achievements, or lastly, the final year in which thoughts of the future were more and maybe doubtful ...

... the year in which every moment was filled with small meaningful senior fun in order to have a past to look back on.

but you've molded yourself and have proven that you're ready for the "big" world, whatever it may bring to you. the diadem is dedicated to you, the seniors of '69 with hopes that it contains at least a small part of your marian memories.

1968 district games

left: the marian colts played their first opener of the '68 district games against the st. pius panthers on oct. 11th. it looked as though the game was going to end in a 15-15 tie. then, with less than two minutes left in the game, the colts carried the ball 25 yards for the winning touchdown. the final victory score stood marian 21, st. pius 15.

right: pictured, is just a small portion of the action captured from the marian-jesuit game. the first quarter ended with both teams being scoreless. during the next two quarters the jebbies scored. in the final quarter of play, while still showing plenty of strength, the colts scored on a great interception. the game ended with a final of 45 to 6 in their favor.

left: november 8th was the scene of the colt's homecoming game, against st. thomas, freezing temperature and rain! despite the weather conditions, marian managed to present a great game. although at the end, the scoreboard showed the eagles as winning, it was evident that the colts had fought all the way and never gave up! the final was 30-0.

right: the last of the district games was played on november 15th against mt. carmel. even though the colts really tried hard they were only able to cross the goal line once. the final score ended with the rebels having 41 and the colts 6.

the marian colts ended their season of play in 4th place in the district.

FUNNY GIR

activities

premiere "funny girl"

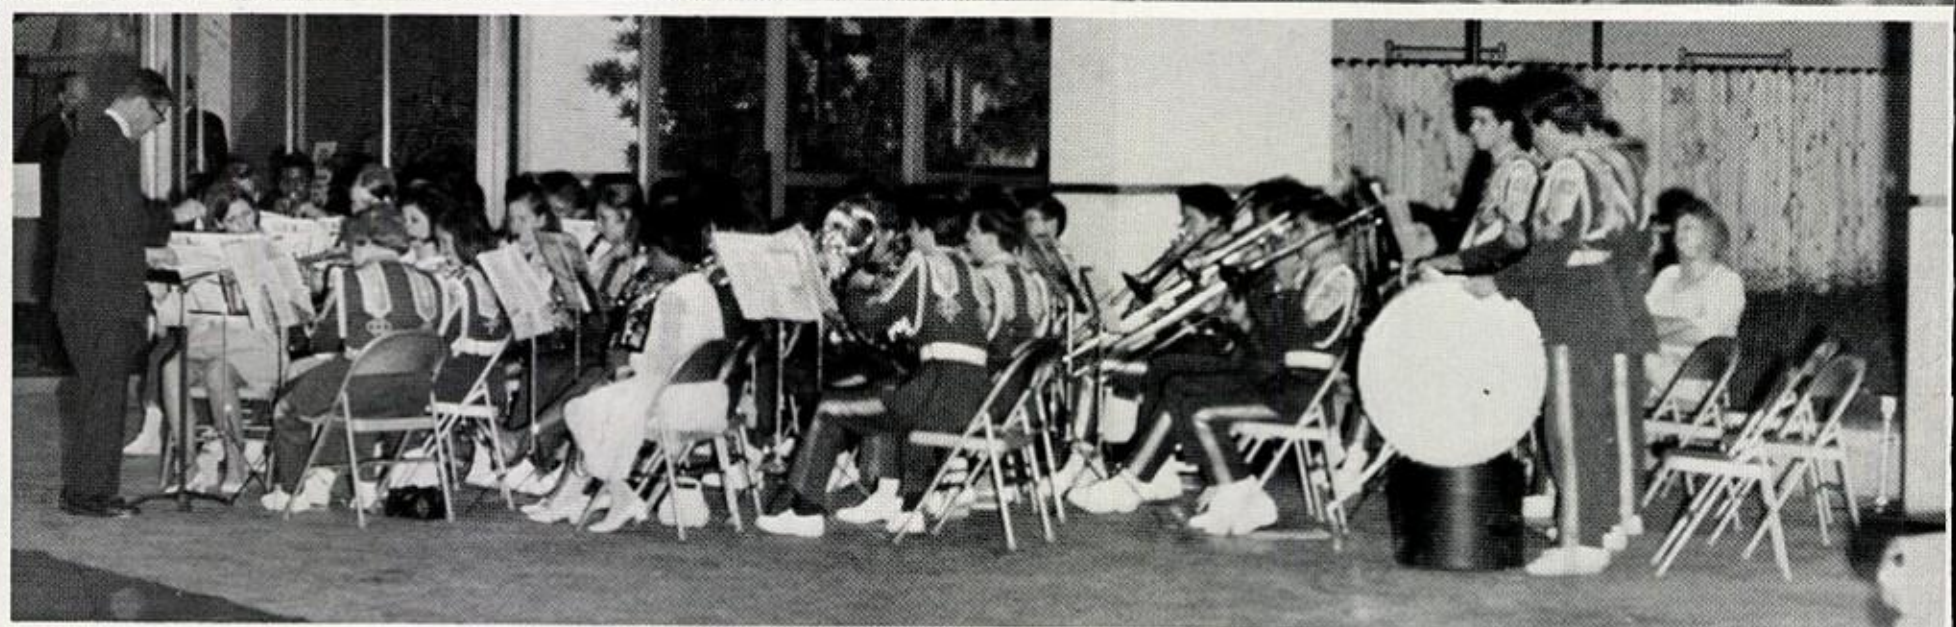

champagne is over there.

the night of october 23, 1968 marian high presented the gulf coast premiere of "funny girl." starring america's top female vocalist and television star barbra streisand accompanied by darkly handsome and romantic omar sharif.

people who see "funny girl" are the luckiest people in the world.

and the band played on!

mr. keady, mr. hillman, mr. martin, sr. brendan, sr. grace, mr. kennedy, mr. morrison.

homecoming week 1968 was a combination of several different activities which served to bring out the characteristic spirit and loyalty that comes with marian's students. pep rallies acted as vitamin pills to sustain spirit the whole week through. by wednesday night the feeling of excitement had developed and students were anticipating the traditional bonfire. at friday's game, the student body cheered the homecoming queen and king, terri schexnayder and eddie averdieck (as they waded out in the mud) ... being brought to an end by the dance, this was a week to remember ...

paula evans (top) and one faculty cheerleader, mrs. koger express the fun of the many pep rallies. ummm ... ummm ...

meet your boy (?) cheerleaders: chuck eckstrom, chuck castiglione, tommy garner, riki robau, jack fetterman, chuck cheaney, eddie averdieck, allen felts.

spirit soars high at homecoming time many thanks to mr. summers for making the bonfire possible.

an old tradition which never dies—the bonfire.

go ahead, mike, and ask her to dance.

at the bonfire dance, the candidates are announced.

“girl-asks-boy” time

"put these on and we'll really be the best-dressed couple."

mr. tanner—the fastest caller in the west!!!

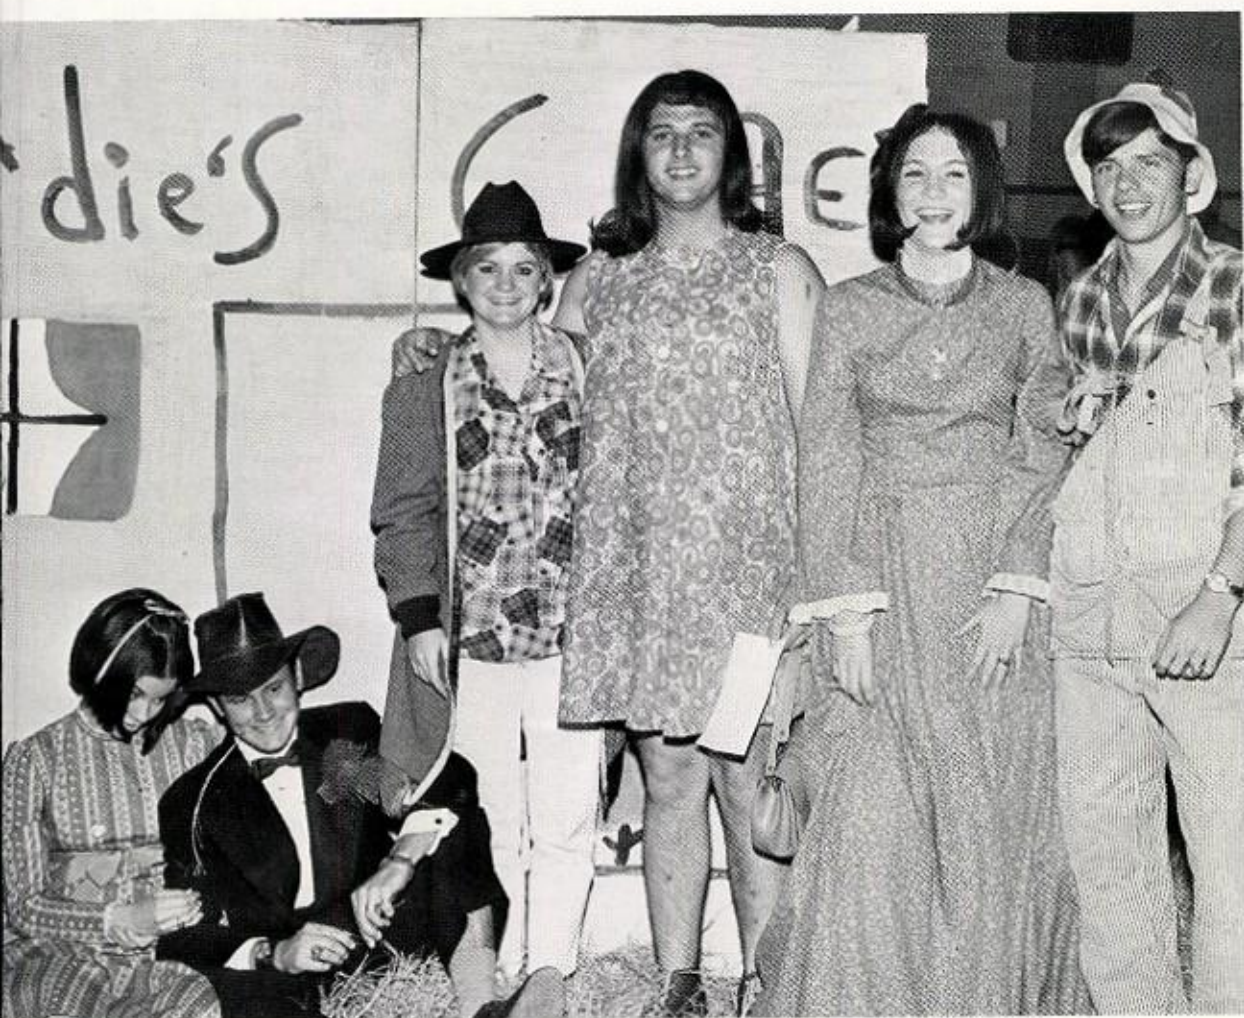

sadie's chaperones: mr. and mrs. tanner, mrs. redden and elmo, mr. and mrs. jennings.

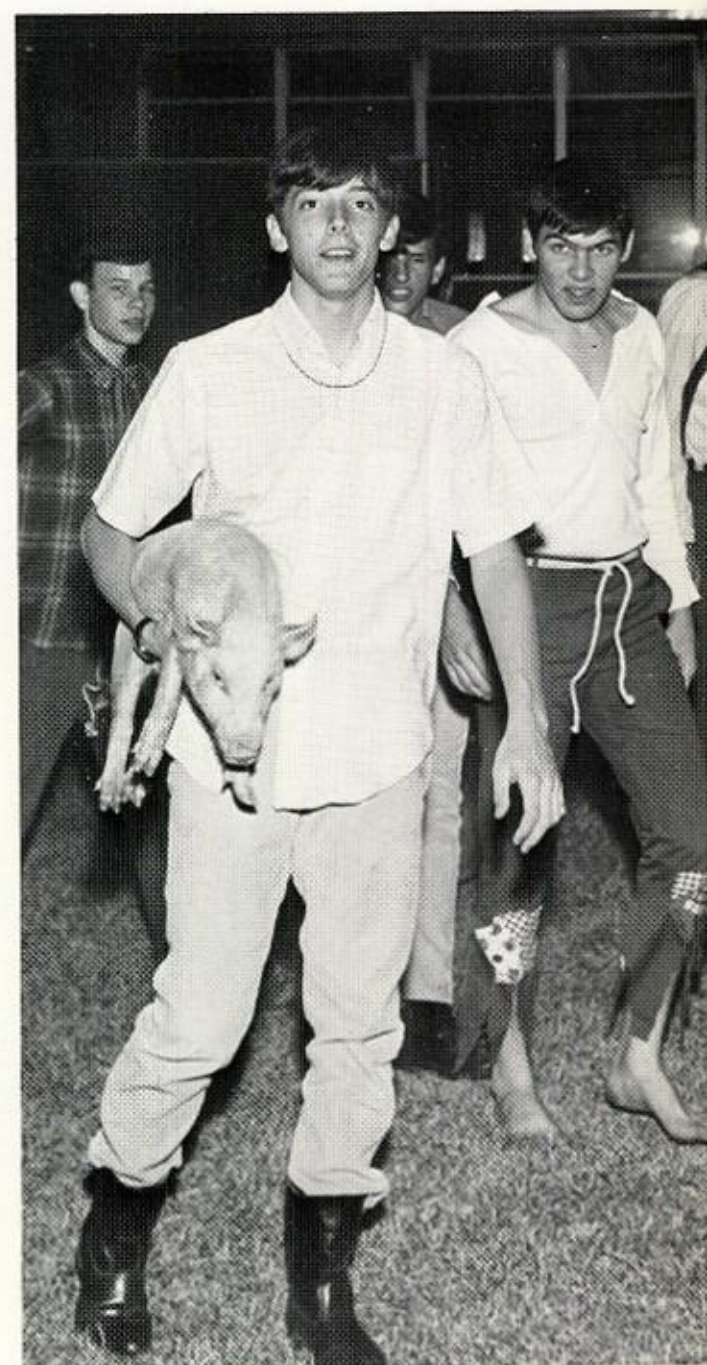

either you sing it my way or not at all!!

the annual pep club-sponsored sadie hawkins fling brought many good stomping times with its pig chase, prizes and good old square dancing. reckon this is the best one yet!!!

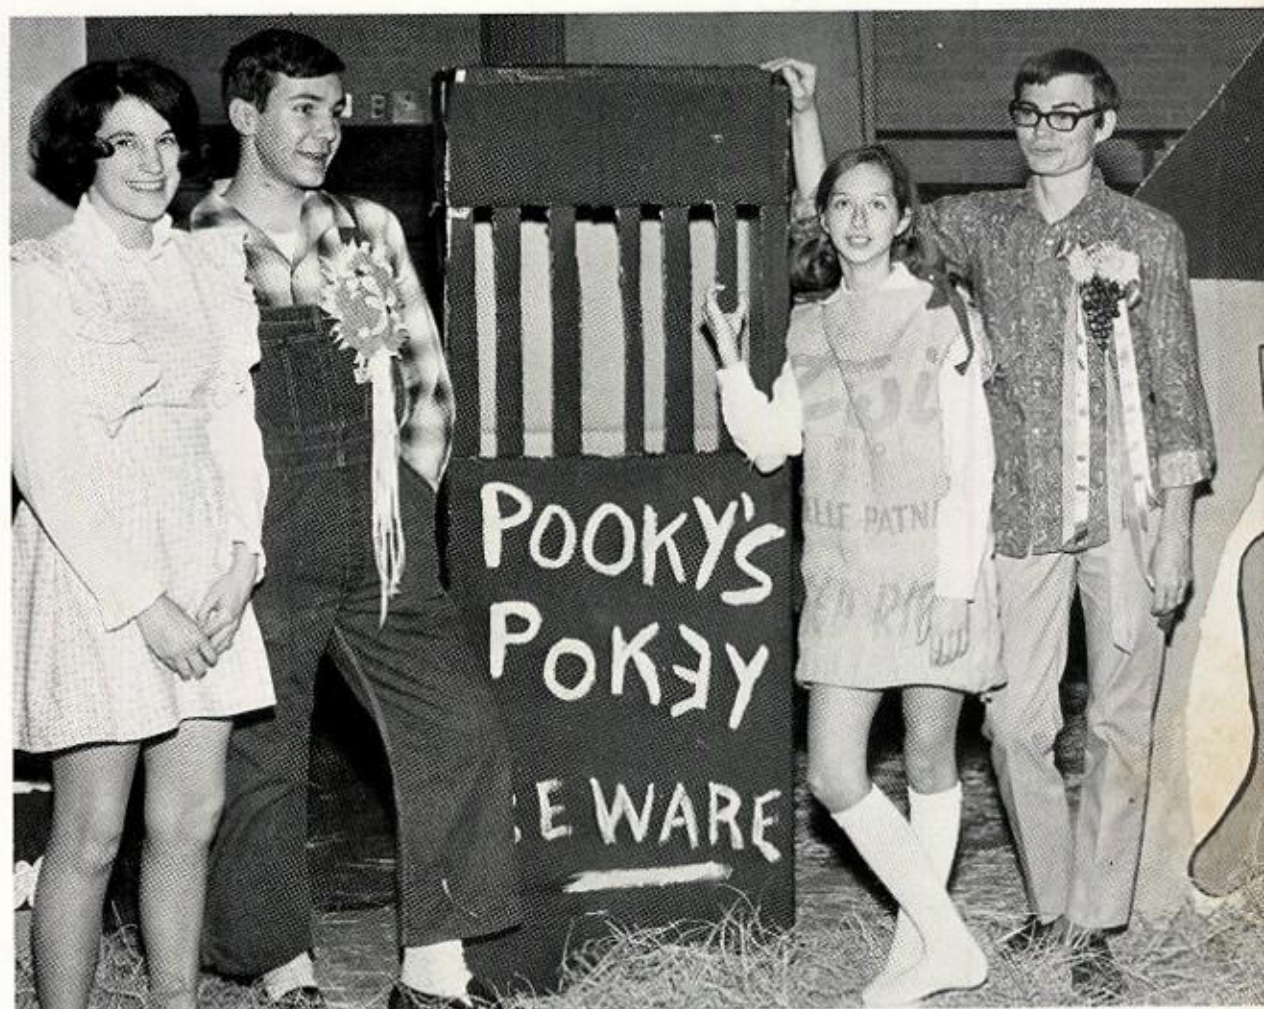

"i think it's time to move on, date—there's some awfully strange ones around here."
(second couple from the right is becky and her girl)

this little piggy went to sadie, and hated it!!!

"could this by any chance, be a flea in the palm of my hand?"

just shy little country folks ... charlene, robert, liz and david were just a few of the many at the dance.

queen nancy morrison crowned by escort lamar everett.

sweetheart dance

sister brendan receives roses from the junior class.

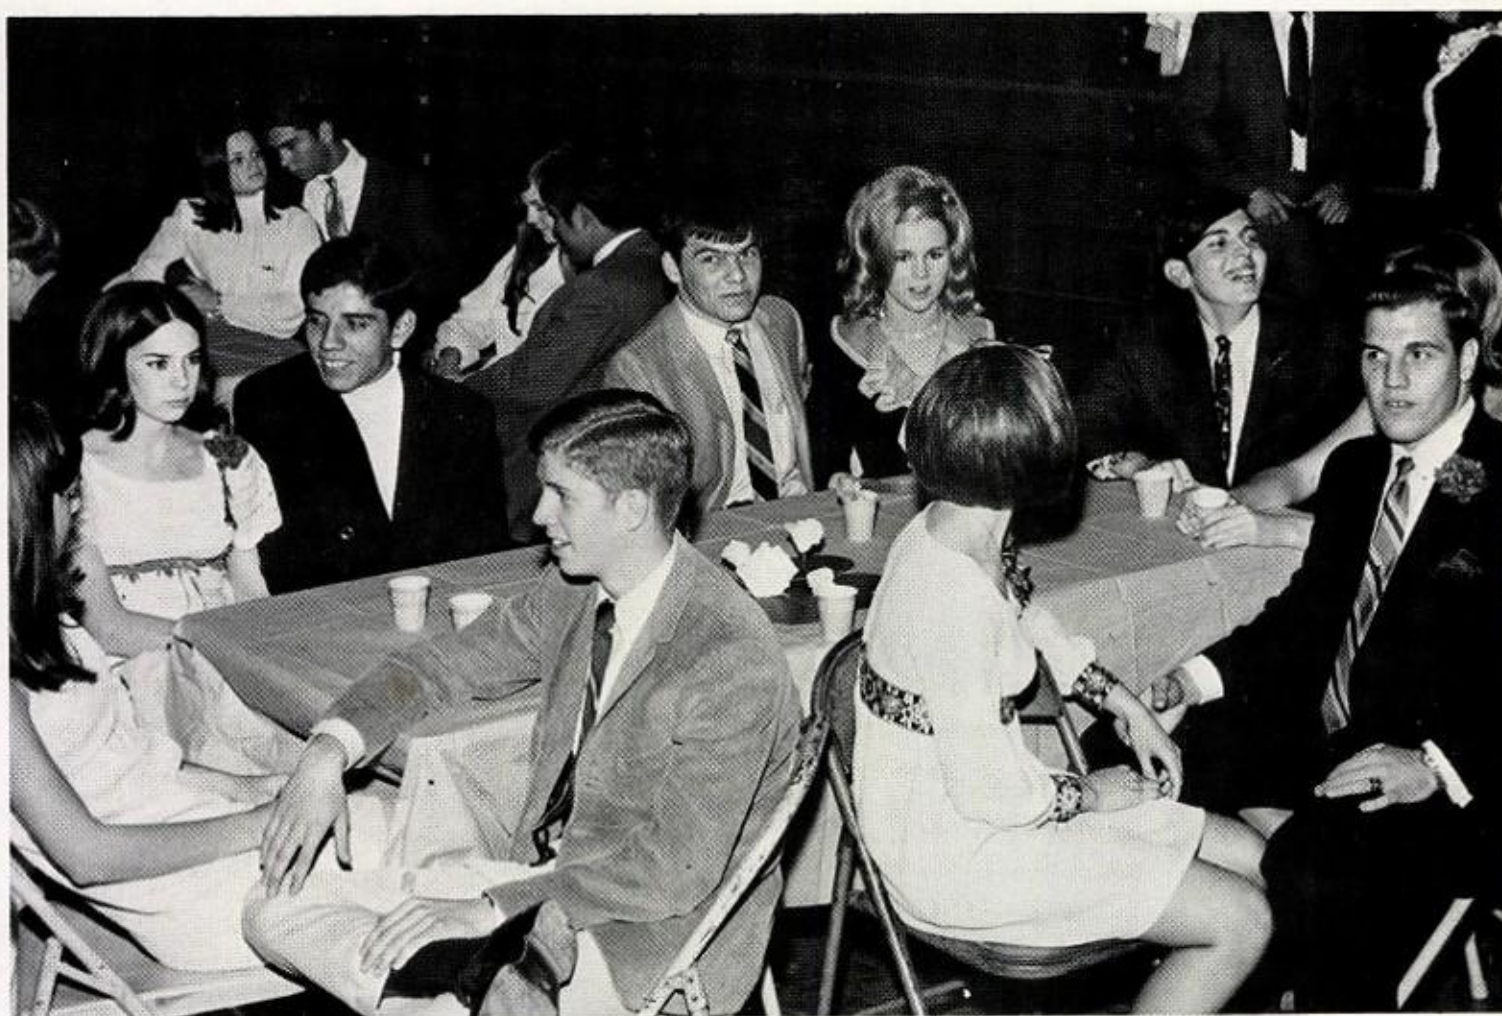

134 now this time judy, put your right foot first.

i think i'm rather good, don't you?

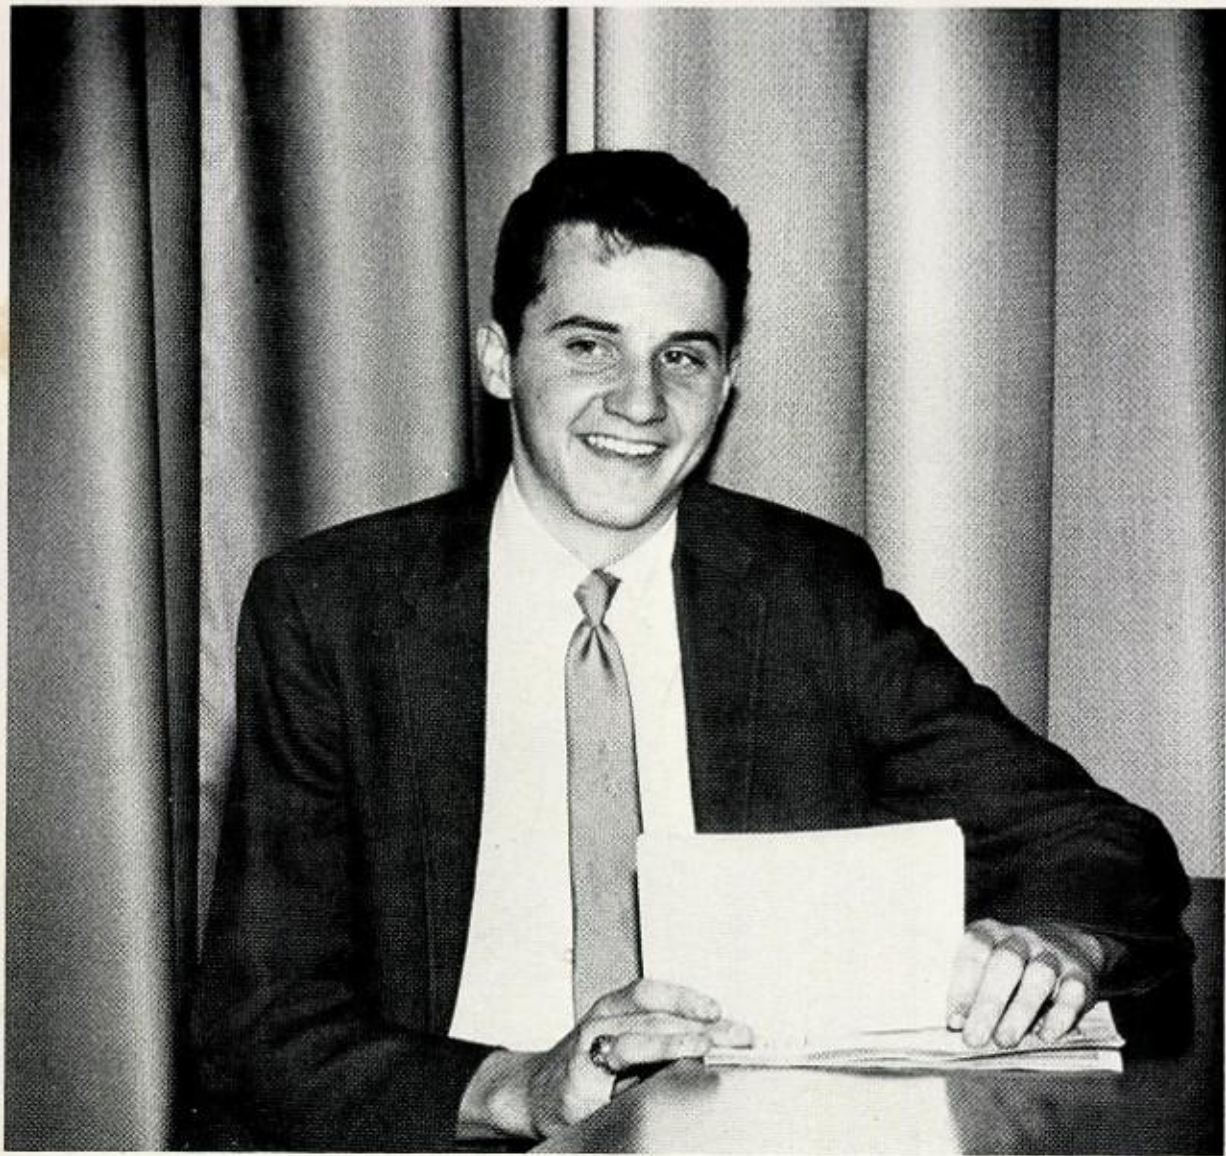

candidates and their escorts: sophomore: maureen wannamaker, greg o'brien; junior: gee smith, preston carry; senior: paula evans, dennis fetterman.

where did he go now??

wayne kleck proved his ability to be a great master of ceremonies.

without mr. welhoelter, his time, patience and determination the show would not go on. he could never be repaid.

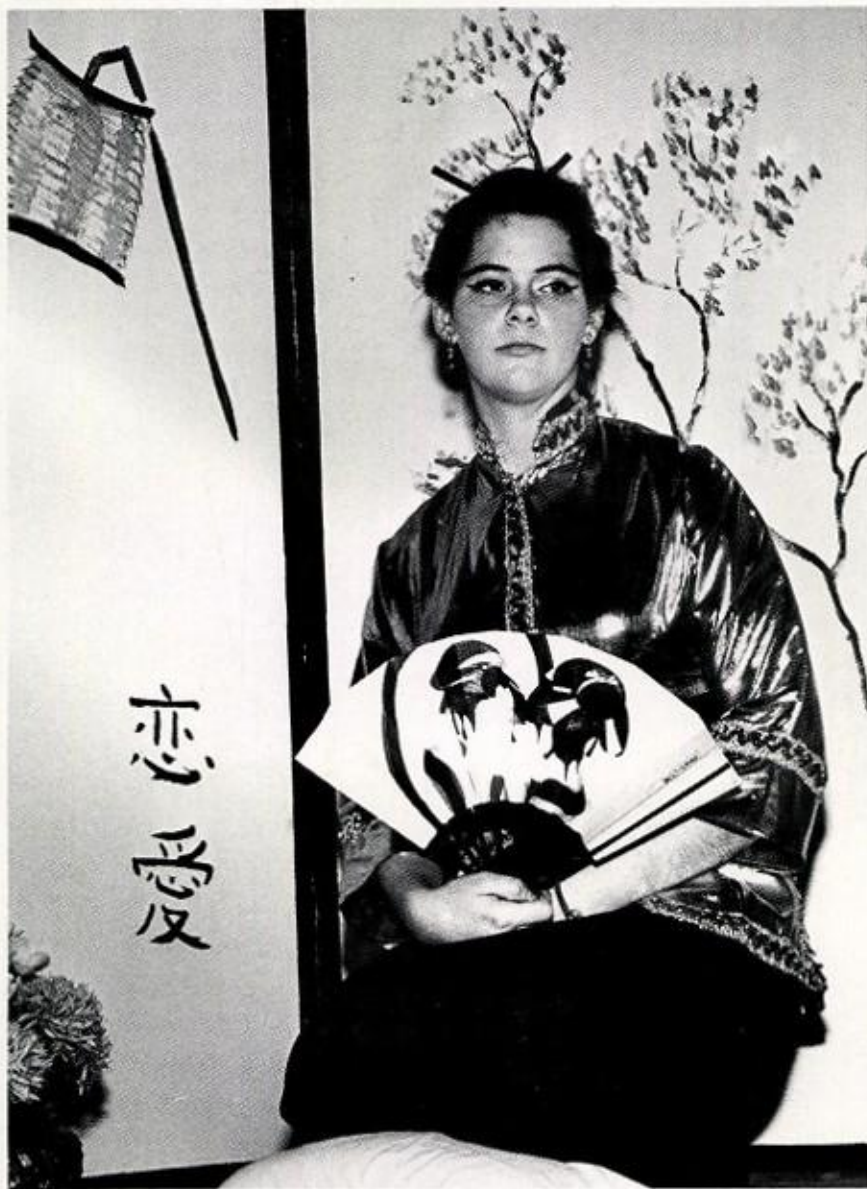

the gracefulness of sherry reed showed that she and dancing go together.

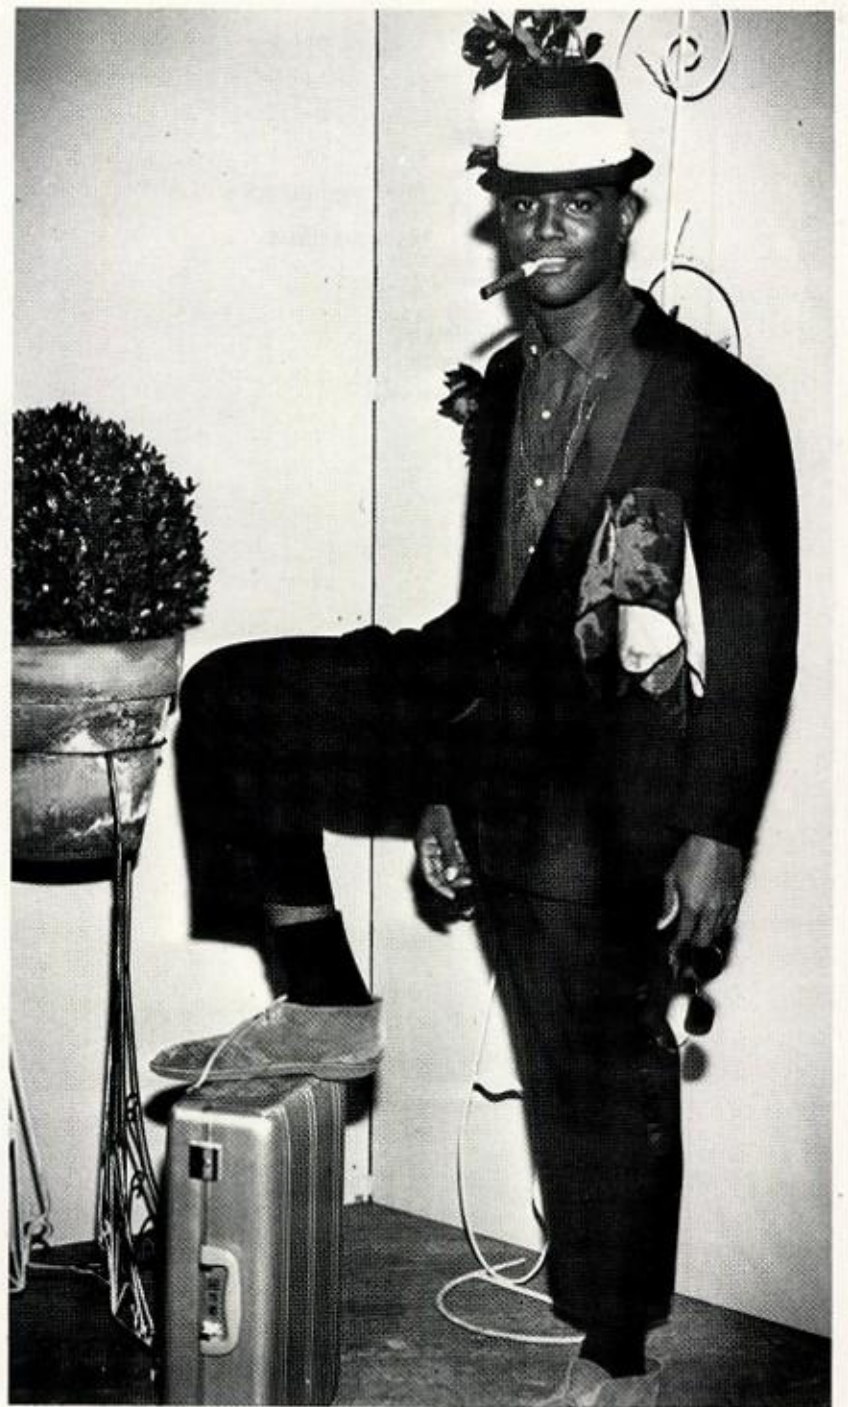

the charleston dancers really cut a rug. they are: jim wiggins, connie rheä, david pershia, pat celaya, mike elliot, judy berryman, and bruce huffmaster.

spring spotlight

for all.

marie adlof pleased opera lovers with "um belle de" from madame butterfly.

the banquets' guest speakers were mr. grady hatton and mr. carol vance. mr. hatton spoke appropriately on school pride and self-improvement. mr. vance talked about juvenile delinquency, a problem which should concern all.

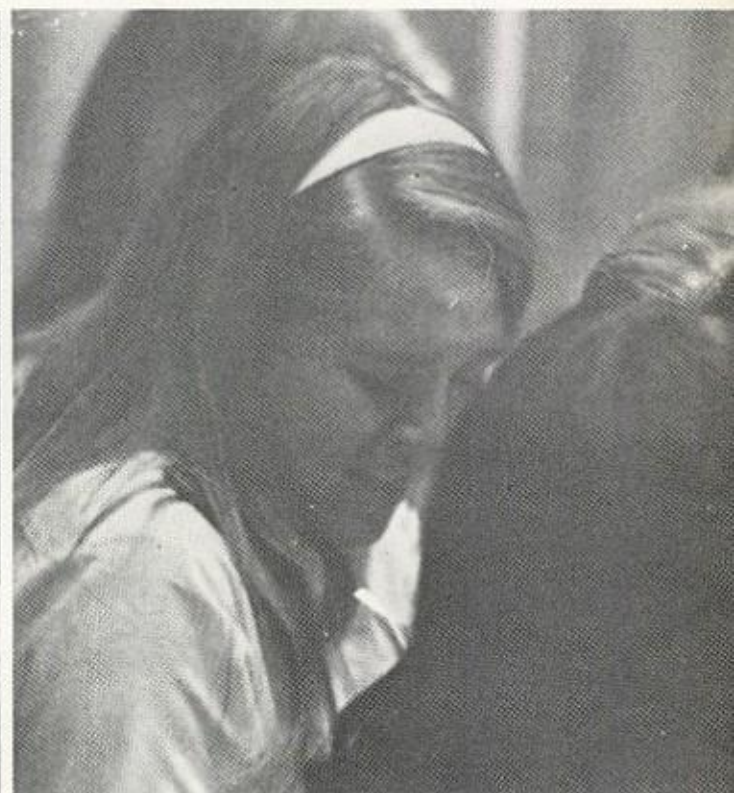

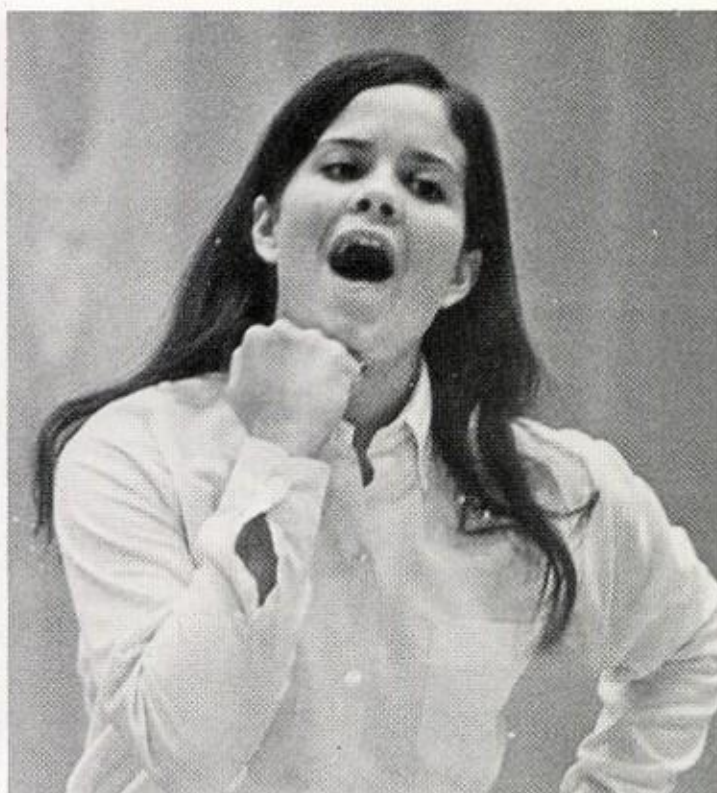

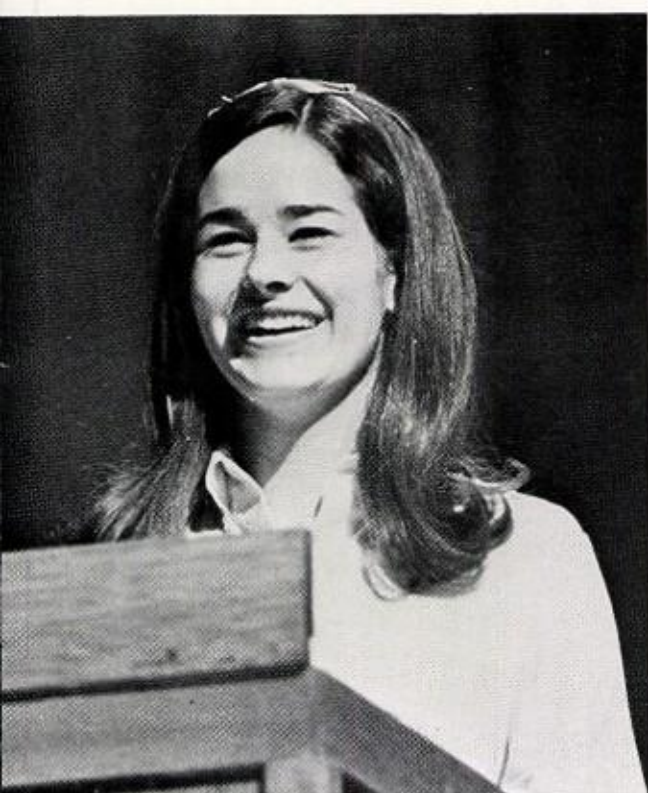

this group did not receive any awards but they do make up a large part of the girls athletics at marian.

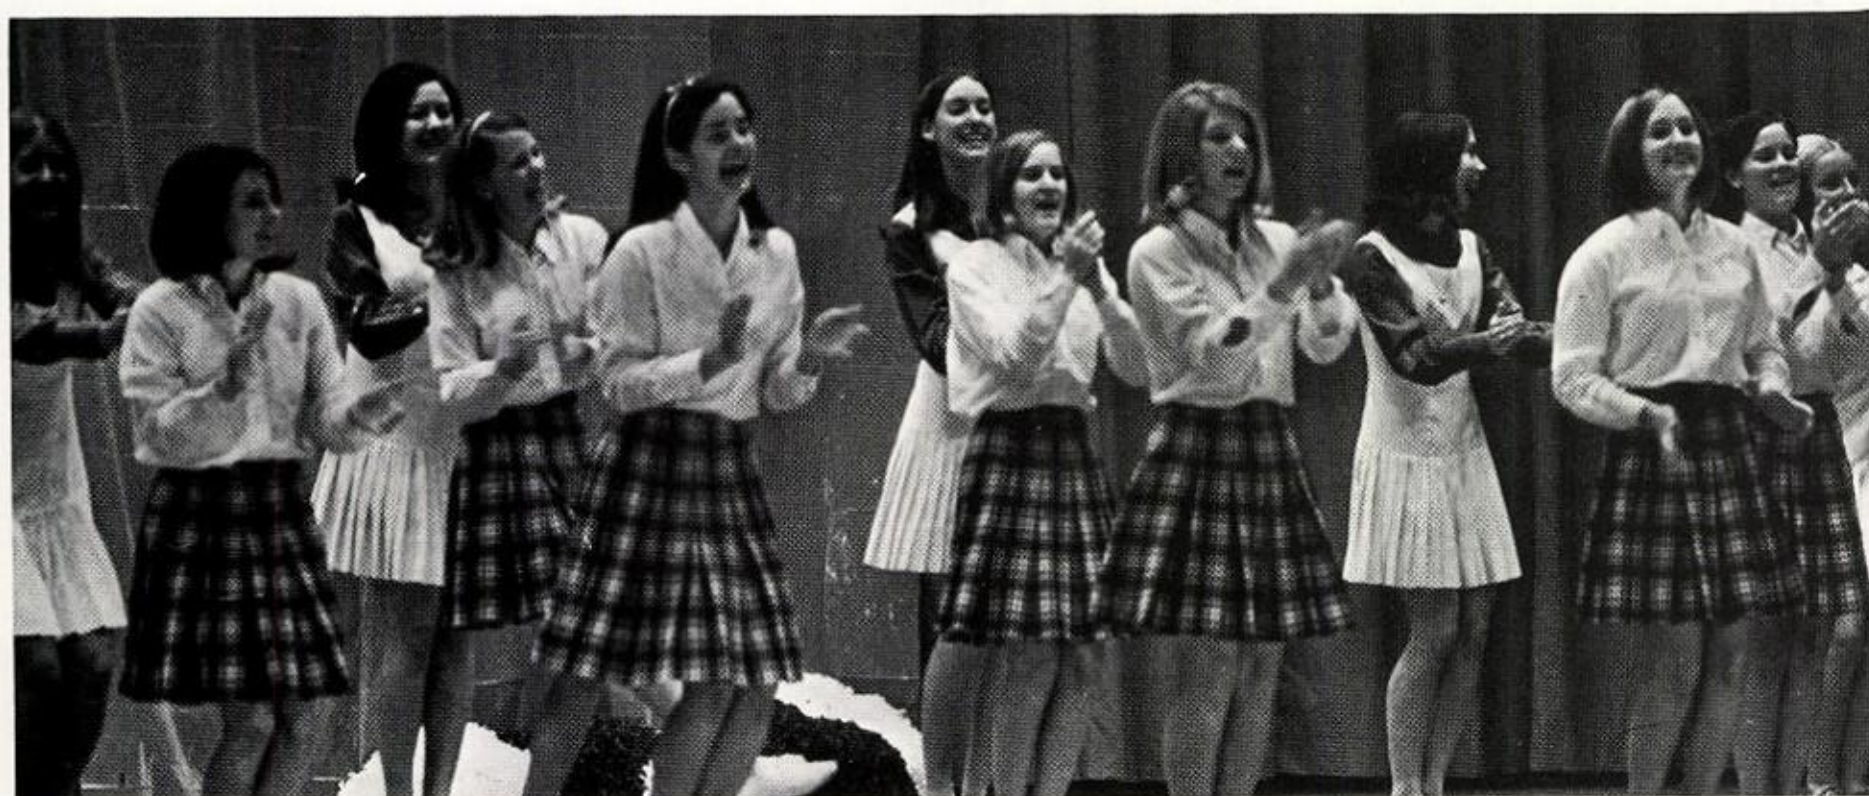

some of the boys deserving of awards this year were: ronnie cortez, michael curvey, terry parks and david brennan. coach parsons distributed the awards.

coming seniors get ready for the big year tension mounts throughout the speeches, each girl's cheering abilities and then the tears come as the new cheerleaders are named.

for one last time, the old cheerleaders give a yell with their new replacements.

msgr. frank blesses and presents the flag to junior representatives.

it's time for the juniors to take over and the first big step is to receive their senior symbol: the senior ring.

chuck, carol, susan and phil arrive in grand array.

cornflakes anyone?

isn't this nice?

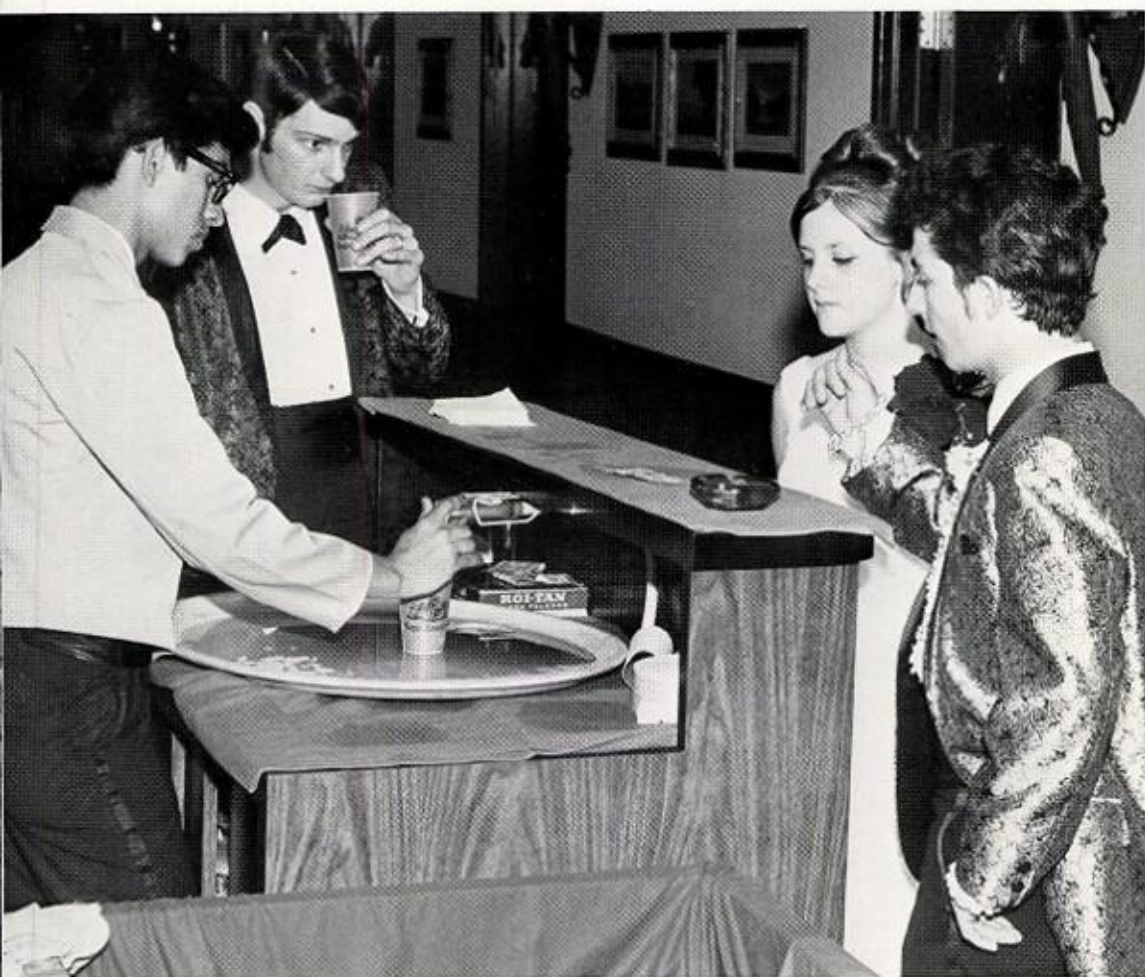

don't we get any?

do you think it'll be dry in time?

the senior prom finally came . . .

"step right up to the bar, kids!" (anthony palasota and teresa maloney)

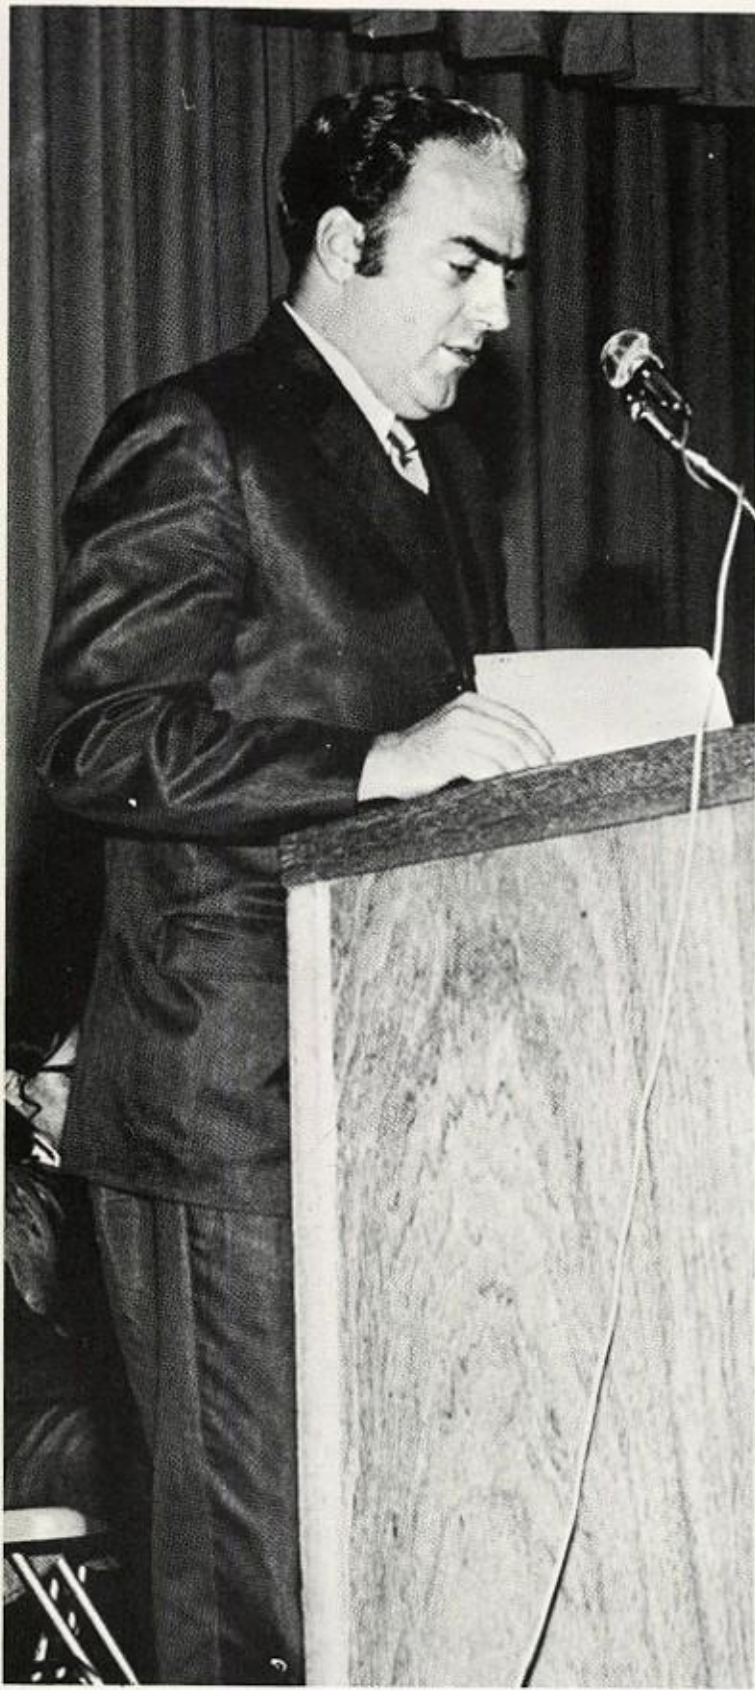

the ambassadors of soul set the pace for all the dancers.

and was a big success!!

the distinguished chaperones: mr. farek, miss mcleary, sr. rosanne, sr. grace, sr. cor mariae, sr. brendan, coach and mrs. apolskis, miss raines and mr. parsons.

mr. ned hogan from the university of saint thomas spoke on the generation gap and how it could be due to a lack on both the parents' and child's part.

sister grace proudly presented nedt certificates to successful freshmen and sophomores after her explanation of the test and its purpose.

YEA!

YEA!

the embers glow steadily dimmer ... so fades our years of learning ... to live and love ... at marian ... These dying flames leave their mark ... as these years have burned ... in our minds and hearts ... their imprint ... they are the best ... for they are the last ... treasure them.

Best Luck
Phil

Arnold,
We've known each
other for a long time and I can remember all the good times as well as the bad ones. But the thing I'll remember forever is the fact there's only one you (thank goodness) and I'll always have a little love just for you!

Love,
Janice

Arnold,
Good luck.
